Submissions Must Include:

- Submitter's Name
- Phone Number & Email
- Recipe Title
- Ingredients/Measurements
- Step-by-step Instructions
- Personal Statement

The personal statement may include the recipe's origins or history, its inspiration, or other relevant information contributing to its overall story. You may include a dedication in tandem with your personal statement.

We encourage submissions to include photos of said recipe in the making or the final product. While not required, it may increase it's chances of being selected for publication.

To submit, email your recipe to submit@aikenseniior.org and include "Recipe Submission" in the subject line. Recipes MUST be submitted by November 17 to be considered for publication.

Not all submissions will make it into the publication. A select group of individuals will perform a blind review on all submitted recipes and choose the top 30 to be included. Things the reviewers will consider include: comprehension, individuality, ease of use, duplicates, personal statements, and the like. Each selected recipe will be formatted to fit on a single page. If the recipe is too long it may not be included due to spatial limitations.

All submitters will be invited to attend the Hungry for the Holidays fundraiser release show. The show will be held on Saturday, December 16 from 2:00 - 4:00 pm at the Anne and Cot Campbell Center, home of Aiken Senior Life Services. If your recipe is selected for publication, you will be invited to serve samples at the release show so that those in attendance can savor the flavors of your recipe!
